MONDAY - FRIDAY 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM

Professor Hugo Magallanes

Office Phone: 482-7655

Assistant Professor Church in Society

E-mail: hugo_magallanes@asburyseminary.edu

Office Hours: Before and after class & by appointment

PURPOSE:

To develop ministers who are responsive to the needs of the poor and other marginalized groups in society and church. To provide Wesleyan foundations, ethical and theological, to equip ministers and their congregations for understanding their moral responsibility toward the poor and the oppressed. To assist in developing practical applications and tentative responses to poverty related issues.

OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

- develop a Wesleyan identity of solidarity with the poor.
- explain Wesley's commitment to serve the poor in the light of his writings, life, and ministry.
- integrate Wesley's commitments to our present reality.
- develop tentative responses to poverty related issues from a Wesleyan perspective.

REQUIREMENTS:

“Foundations” Paper: In this research paper the student is asked to identify, explain and analyze some key ethical/theological foundations of John Wesley’s commitment to serve the poor. As part of this analysis the student should present an overview of Wesley’s social context and the interdependence between Wesley’s work and social reform. Due: ???, 01

“Application” Paper: Based on the above paper, the student will develop a tentative response to issues of poverty and a practical application for his/her ministry setting. The student is expected to give an overview description of the social context of his/her place of ministry and to apply Wesley’s ethical/theological foundations in his/her context. Due: ???, 01

Final Examination: The Final Exam will be a 48 hr. take-home exam. On the date of the final exam, each student will receive 7 questions and will be required to answer 5 of them. In each answer the student is expected to write a “short essay” response in which he/she will integrate and articulate the material discussed in class as well as other relevant sources. Each “short essay” should be between 4 to 5 pages (without including endnotes).

Participation: Students are required to complete all assigned readings. Reading records will be collected on the last day of the class. Failure to complete readings on time may result in lowering of the final grade, as will poor attendance for class. Attendance will be taken. The deduction for low participation and/or late or incomplete reading of assigned material will be up to 10% against the final grade (full letter grade reduction).

Written Work: ALL written work must be typed with 12 point type, one inch margins on all four sides, and true double spacing. Please follow page limit requirements. There will be a penalty for late papers commensurate with degree of lateness and the adequacy of the excuse. Papers are due in class on assigned date. ALL written work MUST use inclusive language when reference is made to human beings (female and male). This provides for both greater inclusion and greater precision. For more information on this topic see “Suggestions for Using Inclusive Language” available at the Dean’s office. For style and form of BOTH written papers AND final exam use and follow:
